Cigarette Smoking.

From the New York Express.

If the practice of cigarette smoking could possibly be kicked out of the young men of the period a good thing would be accomplished. A dirtier or more pernicious habit has never become engrafted upon the rising generation of a people. It is emasculating the youth of the country, dulling their intellect and sapping their vitality. The sad death of the bright young son of the late John Morrissy, which was due entirely to cigarette smoking, should be a warning never to be forgotten. If young men must smoke, let them smoke pipes or cigars, in which they will get none of the injurious and poisonous effects of burning paper, which, later in life, will bring on most painful results.

Who Says This is not Good?

From the New York Sun.

Just as some boys were drawing the body of Wilson Leonard, a colored boy who had fallen into a mill pond at St. Michaelas, Md., a colored man came up and said: "Put dat boy back in de water; you had no right to git him out till a jury comes. Dat is de law and you must 'bey it." Although the lad was kicking vigorously, but covered with mud, he was put back to await legal investigation. After a while the boys concluded to wait no longer, but life had then fled.

An effort was made last week to introduce Chinese labor into the Derbec mine, Nevada county, but was unsuccessful. When the twenty-five newly employed Mongolians were about to enter upon their duties the white employees informed the Superintendent that they would not submit to the innovation. After some discussion the management acceded to their demands.

How to Make the Feet Look Small.

From the New York Sun.

"It seems impossible for American women to learn that the foot looks narrower, shorter, and altogether smaller in a shoe half a size too large than in one half a size too small," said a well known shoemaker.

A Combination Garment.

From the Salt Lake Tribune.

A queer kind of yellow stuff, made into a dress, that looks like a wrapper on one side, a night gown in the rear, and a duster all around, is the latest Summer dress for the ladies.

LOSE THEIR SENSES.

The average politician, which includes the average newspaper, seems to go clean daft running a campaign. They seem to lose sight of, or lack the ability to grasp the real issues at stake. There is such a great anxiety among the "workers" of both parties to say whatever promises to place the other side and its candidates in an unfavorable light, hoping thereby to catch votes, that the great principles which are struggling for supremacy in our government are lost sight of, or are seen through such a smoke that they seem far off and unreal. The ordinary Democrat thinks creation hinges on a trifling question of veracity between our candidate and a man dead for years, about a matter of a few hundred dollars that accrued twelve or fifteen years ago; as if the efficiency of Garfield as President of the United States from 1881 to 1885 could be affected by such a matter, whichever story is true. Half the Republicans are trying to make themselves believe that Hancock is unfit for the office he seeks, and for reasons which have no force. He is not a knave, and he is by no means a fool, and every effort to make him appear the one or the other makes Democratic votes. Neither does it give him any claim upon the office to show that he fought well some twenty years ago in a little difficulty there was about that time, we forget just what. Things that happened twenty years ago are as dead as the doings of Julius Cæsar, so far as the administration of our government for the next four years is concerned. The whole point is, a certain office is to be vacant next March, and we are to choose a man in November to fill it. One party steps up and says, "Here is a good man for it." Another says, "We have something to say about that. Here is a better one." And so we have to choose either Garfield, Weaver, Hancock or Neal Dow. Between now and November the people will do a great deal of thinking, and they will pay very little attention to vindictive or unfounded slanders, although anything that really bears upon the matter will find a thoughtful hearing. People who lose their heads, and let the idea get possession of them that either one of the parties has nominated either a rascal or a fool will make themselves ridiculous. Either of the men is good enough for any office, and the very question to be considered by voters is which one, all things considered, is the best for the position? Which one will discharge the duties of this office most satisfactorily? To decide that, the personal history of a candidate, if all are good men, forms but a small part of the argument. The great question is what will they do if elected; what influences will control their movements, and what forces will operate the machinery of government? If every man would settle these questions on their merits, no one would need to fear for the welfare of the country, whichever man was elected.

WELL WORTH READING.

Every man who is trying to improve himself or his race should read Henry George's book—"Progress and Poverty." Probably society is not ready for the conclusions reached by Mr. George, and the applications he would like to see made, but there is much that is both new and true in his argument. The New York Era, now edited by Frank H. Norton, for a long time connected with the Astor library, and the author of a number of brochures on social and economic questions, gives a list, commencing with Voltaire and ending with Herbert Spencer, of what it deems the most influential works of the past hundred years; and then, saying, "we are perfectly aware of the boldness of the assertion;" ranks as the most important work of the whole century, "in the possibilities of its influence, in its originality, in its depth of reflection and clearness of reasoning, a modest book by a California writer, recently published by Appleton & Co., and entitled simply 'Progress and Poverty,' by Henry George." The Era declares the logic of this book "perfectly irrefutable, while in its diction and rhetoric it is fascinating to a degree unequaled by any other work in the same department of literature," and winds up by saying: "We announce, clearly and distinctly, that to our view, no book has appeared in the century which has exerted so marked an influence as this 'Progress and Poverty.'"

KEEP HIM IN THE RIGHT PLACE.

They say that Hancock is a good soldier, and that he manages the routine of army business, to which all his life he has been accustomed, with care and skill.

General Hancock now occupies a high and honorable position in the army. He is useful to his country in his present position, for he had a training which qualifies him to fitly discharge its duties.

Then why remove General Hancock from a post of honor and usefulness to a position which he is obviously incompetent to fill? He is ignorant of political science and has had absolutely no political experience.

Let us keep the good soldier, General Hancock, in the army, and send the able statesman, Garfield, to the White House.

BE NOT TOO SURE.

A contemporary says that Nevada is sure to go Republican next November.

This is probably true.

So, when the hare and the tortoise started out on their famous race, it was thought a sure thing for the hare. But while the confident hare was asleep, the crafty tortoise reached the goal.

There is a useful moral in this old fable, which the Republicans of this State should bear in mind.

The Democratic snake can run very fast through the grass.

If the Republicans would win they must work. Work during the summer. November is the time to brag.

AN IMPORTANT CORRECTION.

This is the way a portion of Gen. Garfield's letter of acceptance read, as it was telegraphed and published in all the newspapers of the country: "I cordially indorse the principles set forth in the platform adopted by the Convention on nearly all the subjects of which it treats. My opinions are on record among the proceedings of Congress." And this is the way the sentence was written, and should have read: "I cordially indorse the principles set forth in the platform adopted by the Convention. On nearly all the subjects of which it treats, my opinions are on record among the published proceedings of Congress." Erroneous punctuation sometimes plays the mischief with articles in the newspapers.

THE MILE IN 2 13:1-2.

At Chicago last Saturday Maud S. trotted a mile in 2:13½, without a break. The race was against Trinket. Three mile-heats were trotted: Time, 2:18, 2:21½, 2:13½. From the word go on the third heat Maud S. trotted very level and square, reaching the quarter in a 2:12 gait, the second quarter in a 2:08 gait, and the third quarter in a 2:11 gait. Her performance raised the excitement to fever heat, and as she walked proudly back to her stable at the end of the race, the ground resounded with cheers in her honor. A race between Maud S. and St. Julien is likely to come off soon.

An esteemed Republican contemporary on the Comstock seems to take great delight in calling C. A. Dana a coward. This is rather a feeble way of attacking the Sun, of which great journal Dana is editor. The story that he refused to help a woman at the scene of the Seawankaka disaster is probably a lie. Dana has himself so declared it. The courtesy which one great journalist owes another should induce the editor of the Enterprise to refrain from applying such an epithet as "coward" to Dana, even although they lead opposing political parties.

In the International rifle match at Wimbledon the English won with a total score of 1,647. The American score was 1,568. The defeat of the Americans is attributed to the bad behavior of a member of their team.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

An anatomist is an authority for the statement that an elephant has forty thousand muscles in his trunk. One of the Palace Hotel clerks read this item to Count Smith the other day, whereupon that worthy gentleman remarked: "It's hard to know how much any one has in his trunk until he repudiates his bill and lights out, but you were reading about the elephant. It's all the same; trunks are trunks, and no elephant can get board in this hotel on the strength of any rumor about his forty thousand muscles."—Stock Exchange.

"The waters of Pyramid are said to be like those of Tahoe—nothing floats and nothing rises."

This statement has been going the rounds of the coast papers since the recent drowning accident at Pyramid lake. It is untrue. The water of Pyramid is very buoyant, because of the large quantity of borax and other salts held in solution. A man cannot wade into the lake chin-deep without being floated off his feet. Pyramid lake is one of the finest bathing places in the world.

The New York Tribune comes out boldly in favor of an anti-cat law. It shows by statistics that the cat, so far from being a domestic animal, is a wild beast that murders sleep. There are about 60,000 dwellings in New York, and estimating six cats to each back fence, the total feline population of New York would be about 360,000, most of which are homeless vagrants. The Tribune calls for a cat pound and proposes to run an anti-cat candidate for Mayor.

The Chronicle describes a man who goes about San Francisco barrooms eating all the glass tumblers and decanters that are offered him for the purpose of displaying his powers as a glass consumer. He grinds up glass with his teeth and swallows the fragments apparently without the least discomfort—in fact he rather seems to enjoy that sort of a diet.

The "Salvation Army" which came over from England last spring has been doing a great deal of missionary work in the eastern cities and enlisted many recruits. One of their rules is that no recruit shall marry for a year. A woman who recently joined their ranks in New York has occasioned great indignation in the "army" by deserting and marrying.

The Egyptian obelisk has arrived at New York. It is of red granite and was hewn in the days of Thothmes, about 3,400 years ago. The shaft weighs about 200 tons and is 70 feet long—all one stone. It was transported to New York in the hold of a steamer. Now that London and New York have each an obelisk, is it likely that Boston will go long without one?

The New York World recently published what purported to be a copy of an opinion given by Justice Swayne, condemning Garfield for his alleged connection with the Credit-Mobilier. The World lied. Justice Swayne never uttered such an opinion, and has emphatically contradicted the World's statement.

The new Madison Square Theatre in New York is nightly crowded during the hot weather. It has a perfect system of ventilation, and the air is refrigerated by means of ice, of which two tons are daily used for the purpose. The temperature in the theatre is at least fifteen degrees lower than that of the air outside.

Just before his execution Christine Cox sang the well known Sankey song, "I am so glad that Jesus loves me." He also gratified persons about him with the assurance that they would meet him in heaven. Some of those he addressed doubtless thought that they would prefer to choose their own company there.

Garfield's declared hostility to Chinese immigration should make him strong on the Pacific coast. Nobody knows what Hancock thinks about the Chinese question, and it is probable that he knows nothing about the matter. That subject never came before his department.

A Boston dispatch says that General U. S. Grant has been elected President of the San Pedro and Canyon De Laguna Company, which owns 40,000 acres of land in New Mexico, including a number of copper and gold mines. Eastern capitalists are largely interested in the enterprise.

The New York Times says: There is every indication that before the middle of August the political campaign will have become the warmest and most active held in this country for years. All the old politicians admit that the signs point to the most stirring season of work in the field.

There never was a man nominated for the Presidency of the United States whose views on great public questions were so little known as Hancock's. Outside of the army he has been simply a cypher.

Galveston, Texas, has a population of 23,350; its population in 1870 was 13,818. Austin has 10,500; in 1070, 4,428. Houston, 16,750: in 1870, 9,382. San Antonio, 21,800; in 1870, 12,256.

The Republican State Central Committee have invited Carl Schurz to make a speech in Virginia City during his stay on the coast. No answer has yet been received from the Secretary.

Looks as if there would be a strong fight in California this fall. Else why should Thurman and Blaine be coming to stump the State?

The friends of Alf. Chartz concluded not to bring his case before the Board of Pardons at its last session.

About this time symptoms of "caving" may be looked for in Dr. Tanner.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

The population of Park City, Utah, is over 1,600, and the prediction is that it will be the third city in the territory this time next year.

At Cottonwood, Idaho, the settlers have built a stockade and fortified themselves against the Indians of the vicinity.

It is reported that the S. P. C. R. R. company has purchased the Big Tree Grove at Felton, for the handsome sum of $40,000, with the intention of erecting a fine hotel.

The Elko Post says that the Indians are the only successful fisherman at present, and they probably have better luck with traps than with hooks and lines. They offer for sale fine, large Humboldt trout, and charge about fifty cents apiece for them.

Red Rock, Montana, the present terminus of the Utah Northern, is a town of about 600 people. The line dividing Montana and Idaho is 18 miles south at a place called Monida, where the elevation is 6,869 feet, the highest point on the railroad.

J. Clevenger of San Jose, who has just returned from the Skagit mines, says "a man cannot make a dollar a week there at mining or anything else." He, with 65 others, left the mines on the 1st inst. in disgust, leaving about 100 unfortunates behind them.

Says the Georgetown Gazette: A maniac, Strachan by name, killed Frank McCracken, station agent at Byers, on K. P. R. R., and fatally stabbed John McGlynn, on Monday, July 12th. Strachan, while pursuing McGlynn, was shot and instantly killed by Constable Frank Wiggins. McGlynn died the next day.

The population of 40 counties in California foots up 757,358, against 489,675 in 1870, showing a gain of 267,683, or over 64 per cent. According to these returns, if the per cent. of increase holds out in the remaining counties, the population of California will number 862,780, or a gain of 302,583 since 1870.

The B. C. Colonist says of Alexander Swift, found July 6th in the Skagit region, that the unfortunate man wandered about for twenty days making futile attempts to reach Ruby creek. His scant supply of provisions gave out, and for many days he was compelled to live upon herbs. The body was terribly emaciated and almost in a state of nudity.

A Photographer's Slight Mistake.

From the Galveston News

The shallow water on Galveston bar, which so seriously impedes the commerce of the island city, is a matter of solicitude to every citizen. Yesterday a man was getting his photograph taken. The photographer had given him the final chuck under the chin, and, drawing off the black cloth, and looking away himself, said, as usual: "Now asume a pleasant expression. Imagine there is thirty feet of water on Galveston bar." When the photographer came to examine the negative he was astounded to find the picture of a man suffering from cramp colic and scowling with rage. It seems the man who was asked to smile at thirty feet of water on Galveston bar was a citizen of Houston, the rival Texas seaport of Galveston.

Hade Brown was to be hanged at Moberly, Mo. He and his wife agreed to die at a certain hour by poison. She carried out the compact, but he was compelled to recover by physicians and then die on the scaffold. This appealed to the sentimentality of the neighbors, and they buried the pair in one coffin, with their arms about each other.

JOTTINGS.

— Everybody was glad to see those big, round drops of rain that the thunder shook out of the sky this afternoon.

— D. B. Boyd thinks he will soon take charge of the Reno Savings Bank books in acceptance of the offer made him by the bank. They do not insist upon his giving the bonds of $100,000.

— In the Justice's Court this morning Pat Farnum was sentenced to ten days imprisonment for disturbing the peace. Thos. Kelly, convicted of vagrancy, will sit in a prison cell five days.

— There is nothing better to drink during the heated term than that delicious soda water at Osburn & Shoemaker's—unless it be the same beverage at Pinniger & Queen's, where it is just as good.

— It is said that the Central Pacific R. R. Co. is about to commence suit against M. C. Lake to recover an amount on deposit in the Reno Savings Bank, which was absorbed by that institution.

— The times must be hard when beer does not sell well at five cents a glass in such weather as this. Although Mershon sells first-rate Boca beer at that price, he complains that business is dull.

— Dr. Hogan has a placard on the front of Becker's building announcing that "Weaver's Headquarters" are in his office. He will, it is said, soon stump the county for Weaver and—What is the other name on the Greenback ticket?

— The Good Templars' picnic on Saturday was a great success. Two carloads of people attended it from Truckee. All had a pleasant time and the receipts were more than enough to pay the expenses.

— Although many of the temperance people went to Bowers' last Saturday, the Reform Club meeting in the evening was well attended. The usual entertainment was given with much unction on the part of the performers and listened to with great warmth by the audience.

— After all said and done, the Reno Savings Bank people seem to be doing about as they please in regard to settling the affairs of the concern. The books still lie in the vault with the assets (?), and the promised statement remains one of the possibilities.

Cream a Little Too Rich.

A Silver City boy told two others in the same boarding house that he meant to raid the pantry in the night for strawberries and cream. They went before him in the darkness and poured castor oil over the berries. Then the boy took his turn in the pantry and ate a saucerful of berries and oil, even licking the saucer. When he came out he told the others that the berries were first-rate, but he thought the cream a little too rich. This impression subsequently deepened into conviction.

Only One Crop This Year.

Most of the farmers in the valley have reached the conclusion that they will only have one crop of hay this year. The hoppers are swarming all over the meadows, and eat the second growth as fast as it comes up. They are flying and laying eggs, and will probably be worse next year.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE.

The Republican County Central Committee, at the meeting in Justice Young's office on Saturday afternoon, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved: That the delegates to the Republican State Convention to be held at Carson, August 11th, 1880, be elected at large by primary elections, to be held in the several election precincts of the county.

Resolved: That the primaries for the election of said delegates be held in the several precincts on the 3d day of August, 1880, between the hours of 4 and 8 P. M. of same day, and Republicans in the several precincts are requested to appoint and give notice of the place of holding such primary election, and to appoint their inspectors and clerk thereof, who shall return the votes of each precinct therein cast for persons voted for as delegates to the State Convention, to the Chairmon of the county Central Committee, on or before the 5th day of August, 1880.

Resolved: That the tests of the right to vote at such primary elections be the same as those adopted by the Republican State Convention.

Resolved: That a County Convention for the nomination of 1 Senator,
3 Assemblymen,
1 Sheriff,
1 Clerk,
1 Recorder,
1 Treasurer,
1 District Attorney,
1 Assessor,
1 County Supt. of Schools,
1 County Surveyor,
1 County Commissioner (long term),
1 " " (short "),
a county Central Committee and precinct officers, be held at the pavilion, Reno, September 7th, 1880 at 11 A. M., and that primaries for the election of delegates shall be held on September 1st, 1880, in the various precincts, and that the apportionment of delegates to said Convention shall be as follows:

Reno	27
Wadsworth	6
Glendale	3
Pyramid	2
Brown's	4
Washoe	2
Franktown	3
Verdi	2
Peavine	1
Duck Flat	1
Buffalo Salt Marsh	1
	52

The test for voters shall be that adopted by the Republican State Central Committee.

Old Brin is Gone.

The big bear with the club foot that used to haunt the mountains around Sierra valley, and between there and the railroad, is supposed by those who have known his habits best, to have been dead several years. There is no well authenticated account of his having been seen sor six years, and no one has seen his track. There is still a bear in the mountains with some of his toes gone, but they are not the same ones nor on the same foot, neither is the track so large. Old Brin's track measured thirteen inches in width. Two outside toes were lost in a trap in 1862. He was seen at Independence lake in 1874, but not since. The man who saw him says he only had one shot left or he would have attacked him. He started for home and changed his mind, saying to himself: "Old fellow I will give you one shot anyhow," and went back. But on a second look the old bear appeared so big he was afraid to shoot. He says "he looked as big as a cow."

Lightning Flashes.

The thunder rolled along the clouds all yesterday afternoon. In the evening bright flashes of lightning frequently traversed a belt of clouds lying above the horizon to the east and south. Occasionally the zig-zag streaks of what is called "chain-lightning" would appear. The flashes were very bright at times, when the whole landscape would be lit up. Lightning is a rare phenomenon here, and the exhibition last evening was one of great interest to many persons.

Dull in the Dairies.

The mountain dairymen are somewhat discouraged. The grasshoppers are eating the feed, and owing to dull times prices are very dull. One or two have quit and several others are talking of doing so. Mr. Maltby did not come up at all this spring. He sold his cows and they went into the cities. It is probable that there will be a falling off of three or four hundred cows next year.

Made Themselves at Home.

A lot of willow and alder poles about twelve feet high were stuck alongside the road between Truckee and Sierraville last winter, to mark the road. The snow was so deep that no trace of road or bridges could be seen. Nearly all of these poles have taken root and shot out leaves, some of them have developed bushy tops and have a very healthy appearance. They will hardly live through the long dry summer.

Change of C. P. Trains.

Railroad men say that it is a sure thing that the lightning train will be taken off about the 5th or 15th of next month, and that the time of the east bound overland train will be changed to the time that the lightning runs on now. So far as a reporter could learn to day, no official notice for such a change has yet been issued. The express messengers, however, say that it is sure to be made.

Boiler Explosion in a Harvest Field.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Near Modesto yesterday a threshing engine blew up, killing the fireman, J. S. Dooley, and injuring eight others—one probably fatally.

Sawed in Two.

PORTLAND, Or., July 26.—On Slate creek, Washington Territory, Saturday, a tree fell on a cabin occupied by a man named Erick. A cross cut saw hanging on a beam fell on Erick, cutting him in two.

Better Than Medicine.

Campbell's hotel, at the springs a mile from Sierraville, is crowded with visitors. The water seems to be a specific for rheumatism. Mr. Campbell says he has never known of a case that it would not cure in two months, unless the disease had become chronic. There are several there at present who are sufferers. Dr. Houston of Nevada City, has had rheumatism very badly for over a year. He has tried Bartlett and other springs. C. H. Thomas of Nevada, Judge Lewis of Jamison, and several gentlemen from Truckee and other places are there. The hotel accommodates about fifty. It is romantically located at the foot of a heavily timbered hill, and commands a fine view of Sierra valley and the mountains round about. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are the nicest of folks and the hotel is well kept. The climate is very fine and there is good water in springs only a few feet from the warm ones.

Fresh St. Louis Beer.

The "St. Louis Brewery" is now open for business in the premises recently occupied by Bosca for a tinshop. The proprietors are Gertenbach & Tracy, late of St. Louis. They are importing a first rate quality of St. Louis beer, which they bottle on the premises. It is clear as amber, and free from every trace of malt—a delightful beverage in such warm weather as this. They sell this beer at $2 a dozen. Before long they will have a brewery of their own in Reno.

Personal.

Supt. Yerington went down in a special train yesterday to meet Secretary Schurz at Wadsworth. The Secretary has been visiting the Pyramid Reservation to-day. He will probably pass through for the west some time to night.

Farmers' Friends.

Mr. Beemer brought in two very curious insects from the Anderson ranch yesterday. They seem to be a cross between a grasshopper and a cricket, and are three times the size of the former. They look greedy enough to eat a bale of hay a day. If such creatures get numerous, they will probably attack and destroy all the live stock at large upon the ranches.

The Sunday Ordinance.

The Sunday ordinance was yesterday observed by all save Myers, the tobaconist on Commercial Row. His place was open all day. Hall and Brookins kept open until 10 A. M., and Hartung and Graff's places were open all day. The latter two claim that they are exempt under the ordinance, as they do a restaurant business.

Garfield and Arthur Club Meeting.

All members of the Reno Garfield and Arthur Club are requested to be present at the regular meeting this evening, at Justice Young's court room. All Republicans who have the interest of the party at heart are requested to meet with them, as matters of interest to the party will come before the meeting. W. H. KELSEY, Secretary.

A Good Well.

The well in front of the Golden Eagle Hotel, nextdoor to the GAZETTE office, is one of the best in the country. Its water is singularly pure and cool. On Saturday while the thermometer in the shade marked 96 degrees, and 125 in the sun, the temperature of water just drawn from the well was 54.

To The Masonic Fraternity.

The Northwestern Masonic Aid Association of Chicago is the largest and most prosperous in the U. S. It now numbers nearly 8,000 members—Gives $3,500 coin to the heirs of deceased Masons—has paid out about $150,000 in six years, to widows and orphans and the annual cost of membership is but about one-fourth the expense of an ordinary insurance policy. There is no more certain, reliable or economical way of establishing an immediate estate, or providing for the future than is offered by the above institution. For further information and circulars apply or send to my office on the east side of Virginia street, south of the railroad, Reno, Nev.

Panacea for Pain.

Read the following certificates by well known citizens of Reno for the efficacy of Dr. Collier's Spirit Panacea for Pain:

RENO, Nev., June 25, 1880.

DR. W. J. COLLIER—Dear Sir: I have had one application of your Spirit Panacea for headache, and was agreeably surprised to find the relief immediate and permanent. I believe it an excellent remedy.
W. H. YOUNG.

RENO, Nev., June 25, 1880.

DR. W. J. COLLIER: I consider your Spirit Panacea an excellent remedy for headache. A few days ago I was suffering severely from that complaint, and was relieved by a single application. I have had no headache since.

DR. W. J. COLLIER: I have used your Spirit Panacea in my family for the past two years, and have been personally cognizant of its use by several others. As a local application for pain I consider it a most excellent remedy. I agree with you that "every family should have it."

Impure Breath.

Among all the disagreeable consequences that follow the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most mortifying and unpleasant to its possessor, and it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society; and yet the cause of it may easily be removed by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentrifice, Fragrant SOZODONT It purifies and sweetens the breath, cools and refreshes the mouth, and gives a pearl-like appearance to the teeth. Gentlemen who indulge in smoking should cleanse their teeth with SOZODONT, as it removes all unpleasant odors of the weed. Ask your druggist for it. july1-1m-D&W

Stop That Cough

With a sample bottle of Kaiser's German Elixir. This is the most wonderful cough remedy ever introduced, being mild, yet positive in its action and soothing under all circumstances. Old and young may use it with perfect security. It is rich in the medicinal properties of tar, wild cherry and horehound. Ask your druggists, Messrs. Osburn & Shoemaker, about its merits. They sell large quantities of it and say it supercedes all others. The genuine bears the Prussian coat of arms and the facsimile signature of Dr. Kaiser on the wrapper and has his name blown in every 75 cent bottle. Samples 25 cent. Large size 75 cents. feb2-d&w

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and legal, and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where six per cent bonds sold at 86, to that where four per cent bonds are eagerly sought at a premium. Under its administration railways have increased from 21,000 miles in 1860 to more than 82,000 miles in 1879. Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,150,000,000 in the same time, and our exports, which were $20,000,000 less than our imports in 1860, were $264,000,000 more than our imports in 1879. Without resorting to loans it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and disbursed annually more than $30,000,000 for soldiers' pensions. It has paid $880,000,000 of the public debt, and by refunding the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $151,000,000 to less than $89,000,000. All the industries of the country have revived; labor is in demand; wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the republican party asks for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this convention submits for their approval the following statements of the principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts:

ENUMERATION OF PRINCIPLES.

First. We affirm that the work of the last twenty-one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved through immense difficulties should be preserved. That the peace regained should be cherished. That the dissevered Union, now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations. That the order established and the credit acquired should never be imperiled. That the pensions promised should be paid. That the debt so much reduced should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof. That the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce already so great should be steadily encouraged.

Second. The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and not a mere compact. Out of the confederated States it made a sovereign nation. Some powers are denied to the nation, while others are retained by the States; but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be determined by national and not by state tribunals.

Third. The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States, but it is the duty of the national government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of the intelligence in the several States, and the destiny of the nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one State, but by the average genius of all.

NON-SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.

Fourth. The constitution wisely forbids Congress to make any laws respecting an establishment of religion, but it is idle to hope that the nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism while each State is exposed to its particular domination. We therefore recommend that the constitution be so amended as to lay some prohibition upon the Legislature of each State, and to forbid the appropriation of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.

Fifth. We reaffirm the belief avowed in 1876, that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should be so discriminate as to favor American labor. That no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery having perished in the states, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territories. That everywhere the protection accorded to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens of American adoption. That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water-courses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease. That the obligations to the men who preserved its integrity in the day of battle are undiminished by the lapse of fifteen years since their final victory. Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the grateful privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.

THE CHINESE PLANK

Sixth. Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with the Congress of the United States and its treaty-making powers, that the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese as an evil of great magnitude, involves the exercise of the power to restrain and limit that immigration by the enactment of such just, humane and reasonable provisions as will produce the result.

Seventh. That the purity and patriotism which characterized the earlier career of Rutherford B. Hayes in peace and war, and which guided the thought of his immediate predecessor to him for a Presidential candidate, have continued to inspire him in his career as chief executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due to an efficient, just and courageous fulfillment of the public business, and will honor his interposition between the people and proposed partisan laws.

INIQUITIES OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Eighth. We charge upon the Democratic party the habitual sacrifice of justice and patriotism to a supreme and insatiable lust for office and patronage; that to obtain possession of the national and state governments and of the control of place and position, they have obstructed all the efforts to preserve the purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage; have devised fraudulent certificates and returns; have labored to unseat lawfully elected members of Congress, to secure at all hazards the vote of the majority of states in the House of Representatives; have endeavored to occupy by force and fraud places of trust given to others by the people of Maine, and rescued by the courage and action of Maine's patriotic sons; have by methods vicious in principal and tyrannical in practice, attached partisan legislation to appropriation bills; have crushed the rights of individuals, and vindicated the principles and sought the favor of rebellion against the nation, and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memories of the war and, to overcome its inestimable good results—freedom and individual equality. We affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to use all the legitimate means of this Union to secure the perfect harmony which may be practicable, and we submit to the practical, sensible people of the United States to say whether it would not be dangerous to the best interests of our country at this time to surrender the administration of the national government to a party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring destruction and confusion where there is now order, confidence and hope.

SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

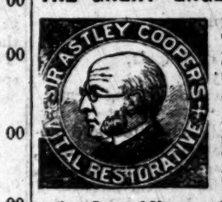

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $5.

P. S. For private diseases of short standing a full course of medicines sufficient for a cure, with necessary instructions, will be sent to any address on receipt of Ten Dollars.
